

Hope

with Heidi

YOU HAVE EVERYTHING YOU NEED INSIDE OF YOU.

I love CS Lewis 'The Chronicles of Narnia series'!

Recently our family watched -The Voyage of the Dawn Treader.

There is this fabulous quote from Aslan the Kingly lion to young Lucy, when she wanted to be like her older sister, as she stares into a mirror - not liking what she sees.

In Lucy's eyes, her older sister Susan was prettier, she was popular and appeared to have it all. Aslan appears in front of Lucy and says, 'You doubt your value - don't run from who you are...'

By Lucy wanting to be like her older sister, she was basically wishing herself away! Aslan reminded her that it was her (Lucy) who found Narnia....that everything sprung forth from her innocent childlike faith.

How often are we tempted to want what someone else has, or be like someone else? That who we are, or what we have inside us - isn't enough?

Each one of us was known & loved by God before He even formed us in our mother's womb.

It was God who breathed life, hope & destiny within us with an array of gifts and talents that make us unique and priceless!

It's a wonderful reminder that Just like Lucy, we have everything we need inside us.... we are VALUED & VALUABLE.

Heidi ♡